The best of both worlds

Nestled on the edge of the historic market town of Bicester, Cala at Himley Village offers a unique opportunity to live in a thoughtfully designed, eco-conscious community. This exciting new collection of 2,3,4 and 5 bedroom homes blends countryside charm with modern convenience, creating a place where families, first-time buyers, and professionals can thrive.

These spacious and sustainable new homes are just a short drive or bike ride to Bicester's town centre and close to an array of shops, pubs, restaurants and schools. With the M40 minutes away and Bicester station close by, offering direct routes to Oxford, London and Birmingham.

A new chapter in sustainable living

These premium new homes strike the perfect balance between space, style and sustainability. As part of a net zero carbon development, every home is gas-free and packed with eco-conscious features, yet never compromising on size, specification or finish. Expect Air Source Heat Pumps, underfloor heating to the ground floor, timber frame construction, electric vehicle chargers and Solar PV panels, all designed to support a greener way of living.

On top of this are all the qualities you would expect of a superb new Cala home, flooded with natural light thanks to large, thoughtfully positioned windows aswell as an all-inclusive specification. You'll have a range of housetypes to choose from making Himley Village the ideal place to call home.

Embrace the great outdoors

Cala at Himley Village's idyllic countryside location means open green spaces will always be within easy reach here. You'll have easy access to country walks with footpaths to Chesterton and Middleton Stoney. Garth Park is less than 10 minutes away by road and has beautiful gardens, with a café and children's play area. Bure Park Nature Reserve, meanwhile, is just three miles from the development and with walking trails and opportunities to spot wildlife. Why not head out on a popular Hethe and Cottisford 7km circular hiking trail with a pleasant stroll through the countryside, villages and farmlands.

The 87 acres of ancient woodland at Stoke Wood are also ideal for a relaxing walk or picnic or why not attend one of the many events that happen regularly in the park.

Have everything on your doorstep

With Bicester's bustling town centre just a 6 minute drive away, you'll have a wide selection of amenities at your fingertips. Enjoy a browse of the household name stores and independent boutiques, or take in the vibrancy of the weekly Friday market in Sheep Street, where you'll find traders selling everything from flowers and clothes to fresh produce and delicacies from around the world. And if you need a break for a drink or a bite to eat, you'll never be far from a friendly café, cosy pub or lively restaurant. Bicester Village also has a range of restaurants including Cecconi's and La Tua Pasta where you can enjoy authentic fresh Italian cuisine.

Always well connected

Enjoy the best of both worlds at Himley Village, you'll be surrounded by picturesque countryside and open green spaces, yet superbly connected by road and rail. Located just 12 miles north of Oxford, Bicester offers seamless access to major cities including London and Birmingham. The town benefits from two train stations – Bicester North and Bicester Village – offering direct services to Oxford, Birmingham, and London Marylebone in as little as 50 minutes.

Taking to the skies? You can be at Luton Airport in around 1 hour and 15 minutes by road, and Heathrow in just 1 hour 5 minutes.

Top of the class for education

Families will be pleased to find an excellent choice of highly-rated schools for of all age groups. St Edburg's, St Mary's, and Chesterton CofE are all well-regarded primary schools. For secondary education, Whitelands Academy is nearby — all located within a five-minute drive from home.

And for those considering higher education options, Bicester community college is conveniently located closeby and just a short distance away is the historic and world-renowned University of Oxford which has been ranked by Times Higher Education as the world's best university for nine years in a row.

Fun days out, for all the family

You'll find an array of family-friendly attractions within easy reach of the development, and for a city that truly has it all, Oxford is the perfect place to start. The fascinating Ashmolean is the world's oldest public museum, or uncover 1000 years of history at Oxford Castle & Prison.

For a more leisurely pace, enjoy punting along the River Cherwell, a boat cruise on the Thames, or simply take in the views along Oxford's historic waterways. Just a short drive away, the majestic Blenheim Palace – birthplace of Sir Winston Churchill offers expansive parkland and stunning architecture. And with the Cotswolds and Chiltern Hills nearby, families can enjoy scenic walks, spot wildlife, and discover the natural beauty of some of England's most picturesque landscapes.

With regular festivals, neighbourhood gatherings and community sports leagues you'll find a vibrant community spirit for all to enjoy.

What our customers say

Happy buyers from Cala at Wintringham

“ We were living in a three-bed house but when we found out I was pregnant, we decided that we needed more space as a growing family. We came to the Cala development the day after our exciting news and had a valuer back at our house within the same week, as we wanted to explore part exchange. So, within days of finding out we were going to have Isla, we secured our new home!

Within four days of visiting the Cala development, we already had an offer for our old property, and we secured the deposit on our new place. It was a bit of a whirlwind week, but it was an incredibly efficient way of doing things! ”

Why buy new

There's nothing quite like moving into a brand-new home. From newly-installed kitchens and bathrooms to the peace of mind of knowing that your property is safe, energy efficient and low maintenance.

What's more, you're buying a complete blank canvas on which to stamp your own individual style. Your new home is covered by an NHBC or similar industry-regulated insurance scheme covering the structural integrity of your new home from years three to 10. The first two years of the warranty is provided by us.

This means we take responsibility for fixing any quality issues during this period after you move in. We also provide you a 24-hour response service for emergency calls. We take personal pride in our customer service.

Sustainability the Cala way

Cala has a rich heritage originally dating back to 1875. We started building homes in the 1970s and, for over 50 years, have been creating high quality, sustainable new homes and communities. However it is not just what we do, but the way we do it that matters to Cala.

Thinking sustainably is at the heart of everything we do; from identifying the right sites, through creating a safe, healthy and fulfilling working environment, to taking a sensitive approach to development and delivering communities that meet local requirements.

As part of our sustainability journey we are aiming to reduce our paper usage by 90% across the company, including the customer journey, which is why we are aiming for online only brochures at our developments.
